Chapter 1 by Tokoroa Central School

once upon a time there lived a boy named Michael he had an amazing girl friend named Chloe. he was a huge fan of NBA basket ball, league and soccer. he goes to Tokoroa central school. one day he had a game of basket ball with his class mates he got furious because the opposition kept on fouling him he is ten years old. in the future he married Chloe and he was a professional basket ball player. he played for the Chicago bulls

Chapter 2 by intellikat

The flight from New Zealand was exhausting, but Michael survived. The taxi from Chicago-O'Hare Airport was stifling, but he soldiered on. The NBA tryouts that he attended were compulsory, of course, and yet he sailed through with "flying colours" as they say. Michael had everything going for him. Everything, that is, except for an unpaid gambling debt back in Tokoroa. A gambling debt that would lead to the loss of his right hand and his budding NBA career.
